October 9, 2014
Minutes

Present: Katie Blaesing, Carole Nickolai, Windi Mitchell, Patrick Lynch, Ted Curry, Alex Llenara, Michael Shaughnessy, Reese Bayze, Bill Gotch, Forrest Higgins, Scott Haluck, Danielle Devincenzi, Abram Jackson, Steve Bluford

October In-Service: "Cracking the Codes" with Shakti Butler: Striving To Be For and With Others

Review Goals, Agenda, & Presentation Slides

- Clarifications on presentation
 - Reduce text on slides
 - Provide single page with mission statement on one side & strategic plan on other
 - Provide a "glossary" of terms and concepts (iceberg theory of culture, impact vs intent, cultural humility, etc.)
- Clarification of Agenda
 - We'll have a "working" breakfast with the aim of being seated and working at 8:45
 - There will be no lunch but there will be snacks and an early ending
 - Small-Group Discussion
 - Breakfast groups will be small group discussion groups at noon (~20 groups of 8)
 - Each one will have a DIG member who will facilitate discussion
 - Where will groups meet?
 - Back at the tables in the Commons
 - Shakti will give us the questions for discussion soon
- Other items
 - Let's print large versions of the 3 posters we had at the last meeting (Iceberg of Differences, Social Identity Groups, Dialogue Principles)
 - FYI: the poster on Dialogue Principles had a typo ("Principals") so make sure that is fixed
 - We need to remind people that they have tools, Dr Jones gave us tools at the last session that we should name and validate
 - We need to make use of the "first and last five minutes" to clarify outcomes and make connections
 - We need to announce and advertise "what's next" (beer summits, reading groups, etc.)
 - Be sure to remind the faculty to watch the TED talk and read the article
 - Let's show them after school in classrooms next Monday & Tuesday

Brief Update on AIM Survey
